

Howard Caldwell

- Journalist 45 years (35 years as anchor-producer-reporter Channel Six, Indianapolis)
- Graduate Butler University in Journalism with a Master's Degree in Political Science
- Past President: Service Club of Indianapolis, Press Club, and Indianapolis Literary Club. Presently Chairman, Indianapolis Indians Speaker's Bureau
- Honors: Inducted into Indiana Journalism Hall of Fame and Indiana Broadcasters Hall of Fame. Honorary Doctoral Degrees from Indiana and Butler Universities – Indiana Sagamore of the Wabash twice
- U.S. Navy radio man on a minesweeper that helped clear water mines in southern Japanese islands after World War II ended
- Author recently "The Golden Age of Indianapolis Theaters. Previously "Tony Hinke, Coach of All Seasons" and text for book on "Indianapolis" portions of text for "Encyclopedia of Indianapolis."
- Previously columnist for "Indianapolis Monthly" and weekly tabloid, "Indianapolis Prime Times."
- Native of Indianapolis. Married to Lynn 1955. We have three married daughters and seven grandchildren. Member of St. Luke United Methodist Church.